

Paris, October 5th, 2018

Results of 2018 European FIR-PRI Awards “Finance & Sustainability” have been given during a ceremony held at Mirova in Paris

2018 awardees are:

Best Master Thesis:

“Portfolio Analysis Using Water Shadow Pricing: How Valuing Water Risk Can Reduce Carbon Emissions”

Catherine Chisem - University of Edinburgh Business School

Best PhD:

“Corporate Social Responsibility and Capital Markets: Evidence from Mergers and Acquisitions”

Mathieu Gomes - Université Clermont-Auvergne – École Universitaire de Management

Best Pedagogical Innovation (two awardees):

“Two Degree Pathways decision support tool” used for Oil majors wargaming at University of Oxford

David Kampmann, Lucas Kruitwagen – Oxford Sustainable Finance Program at the University of Oxford & Shane Tomlinson – E3G

“MSc (Master) in Sustainable Finance – ESG Engineering, Asset & Risk Management” at Kedge Business School

Christophe Revelli – Kedge Business School

Best Published Article:

“When do Theories Become Self-fulfilling? Exploring the Boundary Conditions of Performativity” in Academy of Management Review

Emilio Marti – University of Oxford

Jean-Pascal Gond – City, University of London

PhD Research Grant:

“Do investors care about impact? An experimental approach”

Florian Heeb – University of Zürich

VISIT AWARD WEBSITE

Contact

Thiên-Minh Polodna
contact@frenchsif.org

FIR - Forum pour l'Investissement Responsable
27 avenue Trudaine - 75009 Paris - France
Tél : + 33 (0)1 40 36 61 58

